Additional information is available on the Twitter account of the Abu Dhabi Media Office. Tourists vaccinated in Abu Dhabi can enter public places limited to those vaccinated according to current rules and regulations. There are two options: 1. Register on the Alhons app to show the state of vaccination and the result of UAE-based test o2. Show the vaccination certificate on the country's official app (e.g. green pass) and test results on the phone. Wearing face masks will remain mandatory in closed areas only and optional in open places. Citizens and residents fully vaccinated by the United Arab Emirates, Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman and Qatar will fly to Austria without quarantine rules. Six vaccines are accepted for the trip: Pfizer, AstraZeneca, Johnson & Johnson, Moderna, Sinopharm and Sinovac. Travelers are considered vaccinated for six months after their final dose. To mark the return of travel, the Austrian Tourism Board launched a campaign entitled Travel Builds Bridges, with the aim of "reconstructing the bridge between people and countries to celebrate once again the freedom of travel and tourism". The campaign takes place in 15 countries and encourages trips to Austria for holidays, business, education and medical tourism. "Welcoming GCC travelers is not only a rebirth for the tourism scene in Austria, but a great opportunity to explore and exchange experiences, strengthen intercultural ties and join forces in shattering people to better promote travel and tourism between Austria and the Gulf countries," said Robert Grobhaecher, Middle East Director at the Austrian National Tourist Office. "We look forward to welcoming travellers from this region to Austria again." Travelers from Saudi Arabia are already welcome to visit Austria as long as they can show a vaccination certificate, recovery test from Covid-19 or a negative PCR test. Travellers with passports from the EU, Switzerland, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway can also visit Austria for tourist purposes. The Cypriot authorities have announced that since yesterday, September 13, unvaccinated and unrecovered travellers arriving from Austria and Croatia will be subject to the double testing rules and the quarantine requirement. Such a decision was announced after the two countries had been moved from the orange category to the red category due to the increased COVID-19 infection cases detected recently, SchengenVisaInfo.com reports. Besides the newly added countries, the red category of Cyprus also includes the countries listed below: EU Member States: Belgium, Bulgaria, France, Germany, Estonia, Ireland, Spain, Lithuania, the Netherlands, Portugal, Slovenia, Sweden Small states: Monaco, San Marino Schengen Area countries: Switzerland, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway Third countries: Azerbaijan, Egypt, Albania, Armenia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Georgia, United States of America, United Kingdom, Japan, Israel, Canada, Belarus, Lebanon, Moldova, Brunei, South Korea, Ukraine, Russia, Serbia Slovenia and Norway have just recently been added to the red list. Consequently, all unvaccinated and unrecovered travellers entering Cyprus from Austria, Croatia, or any other county placed on its red list are required to undergo COVID-19 testing within 72 hours before departure and undergo another test upon arrival in Cyprus. Travellers are required to remain self-isolated until the result of the second test is On the contrary, it was emphasized that travelers from Austria, Croatia and other red list countries that have been completely vaccinated against Covid-19 disease with one of the vaccines approved as an immune test for entry into the Cyprus territory> Cyprus recognizes 7 Covid-19 vaccines for the trip. Those who have recovered from the disease are not required to follow the tests of tests and quarantine. In addition, in the update of this week, the authorities revealed that changes to the orange list have been made. Based on the data provided by the Ministry of the Interior, Denmark and United Arab Emirates have been moved from the red category to the orange category. The orange category, which represents the countries that are moderately affected by Covid-19 disease, also includes the following: EU Member States: Greece, Italy, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Romania, Finland third countries: Qatar, Kuwait, Bahrein, China (including Hong Kong and Macao) travelers who come from Denmark, United Arab Emirates or any of the orange-Listed countries are required to provide a negative result of PCR tests that was taken within 72 hours before entering in Cyprus. On the contrary, no changes to the green category have been made, which currently includes these countries: EU Member States: Hungary, Poland, Slovakia, Czechia third countries: Australia, Jordan, New Zealand, Saudi Arabia, Singapore accordingly, all Travelers of one of the aforementioned countries can travel to Cyprus without being subject to proof and self -isolation rules. > Rules to travel to Cyprus Cyprus
