Javaid's family defy killer and re-open newsagent shop

Crime Report
The heartbroken sons of tragic shopkeeper Javaid Ali will re-open his store this week...after viewing "It's what dad would have wanted."

Popular Pakistani shopkeeper Javaid, 45, was last seen working at his newsagent's shop in Causeway, Paisley, on June 10. His wife, who is now in hospital, says she believes her husband was killed by a man who was seen in the area at the time of the murder. The shopkeeper's family will re-open the business again later this week as they are determined to make sure Javaid's wish to re-open his business is fulfilled.

Javaid's sons, Bilal and Waqar, said there were times when the family considered ending their lives because of the tragedy.

Ali, 45, told the Paisley Daily Express: "It's been agonising for the family to be back in the shop, after the death of our father. It's what dad would have wanted."
